of the institution of divorce proceedings by Mrs. Robert H. E. Porter, the daughter of the late Thomas Nast, a son of the late Gen. Fitz John Porter, was an all-absorbing topic of conversation yesterday in the social circles of Morristown, N. J.

The grounds given by Mrs. Porter in her bill are desertion and non-support. Mr. and Mrs. Porter were married at the home of the bride's parents, in Morristown, on September 30, 1831. After their marriage the couple went to Pittsburg, where Porter was connected with one of the large steel industries of that city. Two children were born to them, The eldest, a girl, has died.

Edward K. Mills is the attorney for Mrs. Porter in her suit, alleging that the defendant has left her for varying lengths of time and without support, the last time being, she declares, in July, 1903, since which time, she asserts, she has not seen him, knows nothing of his whereabouts, and dering that time she supported both herself and her son.

TWENTY-SECOND BIRTHDAY FATAL TO THREE SISTERS

RICHMOND, VA., Jan. 17.—Mrs. Ada Moore, who died this afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Crown, on Church street, is the third of three sisters to die witin three years, all of them dying within twelve months of each other, and all being at the time of their deaths exactly twenty-two years of age. Mrs. Moore was a bride of only four weeks, and is survived by three brothers, all of whom are younger than herself. Mrs. Crown is superstitiously atraid for her boys to reach the age of twenty-two. She says she feels confident that they, too, will die at that age.

BITTEN BY VICIOUS DOG, WANTS OWNER ARRESTED

Bitten on the leg by a dog belonging to Charles Dixon, Isiah Young, colored, twenty-five years old, of 2259 Ninth street northwest, received several painful lacerations last night. He walked to Freedman's Hospital, where the wounds were cauterized. Young informed the police that he would procure a warrant for Dixon's arrest on a charge of keeping a vicious dog.

HAS LIVE FROG

IN HER STOMACH

CINCINNATI, Jan. 17.—City hospital physicians are puzzled by the case of Mrs. Mary McGraw, a well-educated, prepossessing woman who declares she has a live frog in her stomach. There is not the slightest thing to indicate the woman has any vagaries and the medical an animal really exists in Ret stomach.

X-rays will be tried today in an effort to locate it. The physicians think the frog would have died shortly after she swallowed it, but the woman insists it still lives.
